MILITARY: "CPT William Jackson was a member of the North Carolina Militia during the Revolutionary War and was active in protecting the home front in the mountainous region of Western North Carolina. He was considered to be one of the King's Mountain Captains and was one of the "Over the Mountain Boys"; he contributed to Battle of King's Mountain but did not actually fight in the battlefield the day of the battle. It is my opinion that our William was a member of the NC Militia not the Continental Army, and the record Fifteenth Virginia, page 316 has nothing to do with our William Jackson. ---end of quote from Bob Mitchell--

Carson holding his namesake, baby Clyde

Carson was a very quiet man. He played the piano and stringed instruments. He raised his family during the Great Depression and WWII era. He made his living in various ways: He was constable of Washington County, VA; ran a boarding house in Indiana, and in his later years, drove a taxi cab in Bristol. He died of a heart attack and was buried the day Nellie's youngest daughter was born. (Carson and Fina moved to Indiana a short time after they lost their house to a fire when Nellie was a preschooler. They didn't stay in Indiana long. They moved back to Washington County, VA and lived with Carson's parents in their home just off of Benhams Rd in North Bristol.)

Privette children, left to right:
Curtis, Clyde, Ida, Nellie, Jimmy, Ruth

Fina had artistic talent. She was a very clean and tidy person who arranged her hair and put on makeup as soon as she got out of bed. She was always well groomed.
